PERSONAL COMMENTS:

I am an occasional guest lecturer at universities, colleges and community colleges on topics ranging from reproductive ethics to sexual differentiation & sexual development. I am also involved in community and medical staff education throughout the Southwest Florida region. I have been very involved in My practice also participates in nursing instruction at Edison State College and Florida Gulf Coast University. If an organization desires to have me speak, they should contact Specialists in Reproductive Medicine & Surgery, P.A. for additional information.

Since 1991, I have been a member of the Lee County Medical Society. I served on a number of committees and have been a member of the Board of Governors since 2004. I was recently elected as President of the organization. I feel passionately about our goal to extend medical knowledge & enlighten the general public about contemporary medical a political issues.

My personal diversions include computers, graphic design, exercise, digital photography, my children, lovely wife and stepson. I currently administer a couple of web sites including www.DreamABaby.com and www.LegalSurrogacy.com.
